

UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATES

http://lapa.princeton.edu/resources_undergrads.php

LAPA's Undergraduate Associates group offers Princeton undergraduates opportunities to interact with leaders in the fields of law and public affairs, as well as opportunities to develop and participate in a wide range of law-related activities.

LAPA Undergraduate Associates:

- Receive priority in registering for a monthly dinner series
- Participate in LAPA seminars and conferences
- Have opportunities to design activities in their own areas of interest (e.g. a law-related publication, a special speaker, etc.)

The following is a sampling of activities in the works for the fall semester:

- Kick-off dinner event with LAPA's 2008-2009 Visiting Fellows
- Lunch in December with constitutional law professors
- Possible election results-related event in November
- Informal lunches and dinners with visiting law school faculty members and other distinguished campus visitors

APPLY TODAY!

Applications are available now! All undergraduates with an interest in law are invited to apply for admission to the Undergraduate Associates program by 11:59 p.m. on Friday, September 26th.

See application information on the other side of this page.

Not ready to apply? Sign on to the LAPA UNDERGRADUATE LISTSERV

LAPA also maintains an undergraduate listserv for all students who would like to receive periodic notices about law-related speakers on campus, prizes, events, and other opportunities related to law. Any student may join the undergraduate listserv by simply emailing lapa@princeton.edu and requesting to be added to the list. Students on this list may be invited to attend the Undergraduate Associate dinners from time to time on a space-available basis. Also, please check out our website, lapa.princeton.edu, for more information.
